

Part 1

Read the website article. Use the words in brackets to form a word that fits each gap.

History of Modern Football

Football, or soccer, is the (0) most (more) popular team game in the world. The modern game (1) _____ (be) first played in England about 160 years ago but football itself is much (2) _____ (old) than that. It is (3) _____ (think) that a similar game was played in China more than two thousand years ago and there is evidence that it was also played by ancient Greeks and Romans. It first appeared in England in the 12th century but it was nothing like modern football. There were no rules and players (4) _____ (can) run with the ball in their hands. In the 19th century, rules were finally written, (5) _____ (result) in the game which is loved by so many people today.

Part 2

Read the article and choose the correct word (A, B or C).

English and the internet

When (0) _____ internet was invented, I don't think anyone (6) _____ imagine how it would (7) _____ us improve our lives. For example, I used to have English classes but I realised that I could learn English just as well myself by (8) _____ the resources available online. I've already read articles from two or three international newspapers today and when there were some words I (9) _____ understand, I simply checked with an online dictionary. You can also find music and videos on sites like YouTube or Spotify to practise listening. Finally, you can use Skype, a programme (10) _____ lets you make video calls, to speak to friends all over the world.

- | | | |
|--------------------|-----------------|----------------|
| 0 A a | (B) the | C a |
| 6 A must | B should | C could |
| 7 A let | B make | C allow |
| 8 A use | B used | C using |
| 9 A haven't | B didn't | C don't |
| 10 A which | B what | C who |