Reading

Read what each person below says about rule-breaking and bad behaviour. Write the correct letter A–G next to the statements 1–5. There is an example and one extra letter you do not need to use.

A We should look after our cities. Some people leave paper, empty bottles and tins lying in the streets and in the countryside. These people should be punished for this. They should pay.

B Young people think it's OK to copy or transfer songs from the internet to their computers without paying. I don't think it's OK. They shouldn't do this.

C Sometimes you have to leave your car in the street because all the car parks in town are full. You shouldn't get fined for this. Especially if you're parking for just a few minutes.

D My friend asked me to help him with a university project at the weekend and I agreed. We were going to meet on Saturday, but I decided to go away instead. I feel really bad now. I've disappointed him.

E Young people like to express themselves. I think it's OK to do this by painting on walls in the streets, but this shouldn't be done everywhere. There should be special places for this.

F There are some people who like to spread private rumours and I think this is very wrong – even if what they say is true. They have no right to do this.

G Roads aren't safe enough these days. There are people who drive faster than allowed. This is very dangerous and they should pay a lot of money for this offence.

- 0 I don't think spraying graffiti is that bad. E
- 1 Speeding fines should be more expensive. —
- 2 Gossiping is awful behaviour. —
- 3 It's wrong for people to download music illegally. —
- 4 People should be fined for dropping litter. —
- 5 I shouldn't have broken the promise. —

Writing

Read the problem below:

Hi,

I have a problem at work. Last week, I saw my colleague put two iPads from the office into his bag, even though we're not supposed to take them home. When I asked him about it, he said that he hadn't taken them and that he didn't know what I was talking about. I don't want to get him into trouble but I think what he's done is wrong. What should I do?
